Numb. 11160.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 9, to Saturday July 13, 1771.

St. James's, July 10.

THIS Day the Right Honorable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, the Sheriffs, and the Common Council, with a Committee of the Livery, of the City of London, waited upon His Majesty, (being introduced by the Right Honorable the Earl of Hertford, Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household) with the following Address, Remonstrance, and Petition, which was read by Sir James Hodges, Town Clerk.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address, Remonstrance, and Petition of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Livery, of the City of London, in Common Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Livery, of the City of London, in the Anguish of our Hearts, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person, and deeply to lament that we still suffer, together with many others, all those great and unparallel'd Grievances, which we have before submitted to your Majesty, with the Hope of a full and speedy Redress from our Sovereign, as the Father of His People.

The same arbitrary House of Commons which violated the sacred Right of Election, and seated among themselves, as a Representative of the People, a Man who was never chosen into Parliament, have, the last Session, proceeded to the most extravagant Outrages against the Constitution of this Kingdom, and the Liberty of the Subject, of which your Majesty is by Law the great Guardian.——They have ventured to imprison our Chief Magistrate, and one of our Aldermen, for disobeying their illegal Orders, and not violating the holy Sanction of their Oaths to this great City, as well as their Duty to their Country.——They have, by the most artful Suggestions, prevailed upon your Majesty to suffer your Royal Name to give a pretended Authority to a Proclamation, issued at their express Desire, contrary to the known Laws of the Land.——At length they proceeded to the enormous Wickedness of erasing a judicial Record, in order to stop the Course of Justice, and to frustrate all Possibility of Relief by an Appeal to those Laws, which are the noblest Birthright and Inheritance of all the Subjects of this Realm.

During the unjust Confinement of our Representatives, they proceeded to a Law, depriving the Citizens of London of a considerable Part of their Property in the Soil of the River Thames, solemnly granted to them by divers Charters, and confirmed by the Authority of Parliament; and, under Colour of Equity, inserted in that Law an unusual saving Claute, subversive of the known and established Laws of Property; they have, without any Pretence of an Abuse, superseded the Conservacy of the River Thames, in the Liberty which the Citizens of London have enjoyed from the Conquest.

We therefore, your Remonstrants, again humbly supplicate your Majesty to restore our Rights, and to give Peace to this distracted Nation, by a speedy Dissolution of the Parliament, and by removing your present wicked and despotic Ministers for ever from your Councils and Presence.

Signed by Order,

James Hodges.

To which Address, Remonstrance, and Petition, His Majesty was pleased to return the following Answer:

I Shall ever be ready to exert My Prerogative, as far as I can constitutionally, in redressing any Real Grievances of My Subjects; and the City of London will always find Me disposed to listen to any of their well-founded Complaints: It is therefore with Concern that I see a Part of My Subjects still so far misled and deluded, as to renew, in such reprehensible Terms, a Request, with which, I have repeatedly declared, I cannot comply.

Berlin, June 29. Last Sunday Public Prayers were offered up, in the Churches in this Capital, for her Royal Highness Princess Ferdinand of Prussia, who is in the sixth Month of her Pregnancy.

Hague, July 9. We have had extraordinary Floods in these Provinces, within these ten Days, which have done great Mischief to the Hay Harvest, and retarded the Works along the Dykes, as the Rivers are so much swelled.

Pay-Office, Horse Guards, July 12, 1771.

The Right Honorable the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces having ordered Six Months Half-Pay to be issued to all the Reduced Officers of His Majesty's Land Forces, from the 25th of December 1770. to the 24th of June 1771; also Six Months Allowance to the Officers and Private Gentlemen of His Majesty's late Third and Fourth Troops of Horse Guards to the same Time: Notice is hereby declared, that on Thursday next the 18*th Instant, Attendance will be given at the aboveſaid Office for Payment of the same accordingly.*

Robert Randoll.

Victualling-Office, July 8, 1771.

The Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Friday the 9th of August next they will be ready to receive Tenders in Writing, (sealed up) and treat with such Persons as may be inclinable to undertake to deliver at London, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Dover, all such Quantities of Brine Salt, made after the new invented Method of the late Mr. Thomas Lowndes, as shall be demanded during the Space of Three Years certain, and further, until Six Months Warning shall be given on either Side.

The Conditions of the Contract may be seen at the Secretary's Office at this Office, or by applying to the Collector of His Majesty's Customs at Liverpool, or to the Collector of the Salt Duties at Middlewich in Cheshire.

And all Persons who may think proper to make Tenders upon the said Occasion are desired to take Notice, that no Regard will be had to any Tender that shall not be delivered to the Board before One o'Clock on the said 9th of August next.
